- pay a $300 bond. I understand this is refundable in full within 2 weeks, when I leave, as long as there have been no breakages or damage in my home that I am responsible for.
- make my homestay rental payments regularly, two weeks in advance and give appropriate notice in advance if I decide to leave earlier than indicated in my application
- behave in a manner respectful of my host family's values and which reflects positively upon my family, my host family and Eynesbury International
- be a co-operative and contributing member of my host family and to participate in family life, meals, outings and other cultural/social activities when invited to do so
- not impose upon my host family or relatives without first consulting my host family
- abstain from the excessive use of alcohol (if I am over the age of 18 years)
- will not possess or use prohibited / dangerous weapons or illegal drugs
- not borrow money from my host family

In a Student Residence, I will:

- remain at the residence for the agreed period and pay my rent / bond as required
- give appropriate notice in advance if I decide to leave
- agree to the rules and regulations of the residence concerned
- behave in a respectful manner which reflects positively upon my family and Eynesbury
- abstain from the excessive use of alcohol
- not possess or use prohibited / dangerous weapons or illegal drugs

Change of Address:

I understand that I must inform the Eynesbury Accommodation Office of any changes to my address in Australia and/or contact details by completing Form 929. This is a Department of Immigration and Citizenship requirement as part of having a student visa.
